The following are the notes from Peppa's notebooks during the trip to Country World. Peppa is reading them with her friends in the classroom.

Today is April fourth, Children's Day, the first day of our trip. It's half past three. My little brother, George and I are riding the bike with our parents along the river. We are singing, listening to the water and birds, and enjoying the sunlight.	It is the second day of our trip. We plan to have a night picnic at Bunny Park, the second pick here. There are too many people having fun at Kitten Park. My parents want to share their working experience with us and talk about my future job. What do I want to be? Ha! Maybe a reporter, a teacher, or a singer. I am not sure.
My parents are visiting their old friend, Aunt Polly, a famous writer, at her place. I am having lunch with George and watching a dull show at Piggy Kitchen. The food is not so yummy and the show..., well, I don't like it. I really hate the third day of the trip.	We're going back home at 1:00 p.m. It's 10:00 a.m. and we are visiting the famous Toy Museum and making toys by ourselves. We are really having a great time here! Sweet Country World! I love you!
