2019-nCoV: How to Protect Yourself & Others

After the Lunar New Year holiday in 2020, people around the world have been worried about the novel coronavirus. Since then, more people have gotten the virus as it has spread from a market in Wuhan across China and to several countries globally, including Taiwan. While a certain amount of fear(恐懼) and anxiety is understandable, the World Health Organization (WHO) and governments globally are working to control the spread of the virus. More importantly, you need to know how to protect yourself and others.

Wash your hands or use an alcohol(酒精)-based hand rub often, especially AFTER using the bathroom or handling animals or animal waste.

Cover your nose and mouth when coughing or sneezing with your arm or tissue.

Avoid close contact with others if you feel sick and wear a mask if you go out.

In addition to the above, simply take care of yourselves: eat well, drink plenty of water, and get plenty of rest. The healthier you are, the better off you will be anyway! (節自翰林)

When Lucy left high school, she wanted to go to college. Unluckily, her father was quite poor, and a university education cost a lot of money.

However, Lucy's dad still encouraged her to take the entrance examination, and she did. Her score wasn't very high, but it was high enough, and she was offered a place at a university.

"I'm proud of you. Lucy," her father said. "I must find the money for a university education for you somehow." "But how, Dad?" Lucy asked.

"Well, I can sell my car and work a lot of overtime. I can even work two jobs if necessary, one during the day and one at night."

"You're a very generous father," Lucy said.

"Your future is worth the sacrifice," he told her.

The next day, he sold his car and asked his boss to give him three hours of overtime every day. He spent many hours working, but he didn't complain.

A year passed. Lucy took her final exams. When the results were announced, she ran home to tell her dad the "good news".

"Dad," she said, "I got my exam results. You'll be so pleased." "You passed!" he shouted.

"No, you can have your car back and stop working so hard!"

I am cheerful that I graduated from junior high school. I want to say goodbye to my teachers who always stood by me no matter if I was sad or happy. Time will pass, but good memories will not go away. Don't forget those important things we went through, like winning the basketball game for which we had practiced hard for three months before the game started. Besides, I won't forget the recorder(直笛) contest. We did our best though we didn't win. And we really enjoyed the process(過程) of the practice.

Last but not least, I'd like to say sorry to Ms. Huang, who I often talked back to and complained about the homework she gave. Now I understand what her purpose was. I also would like to thank Mr. Chen, who led me in the right direction when the idea of committing suicide came to my mind. Without you, I may neither be in the world now, nor have I graduated with my classmates. Thank you, my teachers and all of my classmates.
