Ellie loves to collect, write, and receive postcards.

They are proofs that she can hold in her hand and let her know that someone cares about her by written words. For her, they are precious and should be preserved. There are many different postcards in Ellie's room. She has about sixty postcards in the drawer and thirty on the wall. Many famous buildings in different countries are on the postcards. For example, there is a postcard with the world-famous building on it. It's Egyptian Pyramid. Besides, there is another postcard with Colosseum on it. They are both famous tourist spots in the world. Ellie loves to collect, write, and receive postcards because she thinks it is a great way to learn about the world and keep the friendship.
