Norma is worried. Her husband got hurt during a trip last month, and he cannot go to work for more than two years. She feels the pinch because she will be the only one to make money for the family. Her two sons, David and Joe, are still in school. Taking care of her husband needs more money. Yesterday, David told her, "Mom, I can go to work at night." "No, you can do something else to let me have more time to rest," she said, "You can go shopping in the supermarket after school, cook for the family, help Joe with his homework, or clean the house. They all also help me a lot." To learn to cook, David has a new lesson after school. He stands by his mother and writes down the notes when she prepares dinner for the family.

3. From the reading, who is most likely (最有可能) an example of feeling the pinch?

- (A) Mark's son has a bad cough, so he has to stay home to take care of him.
(B) Tim's computer doesn't work, so he will spend lots of money getting a new one.
(C) John's mother is busy these days, so they eat dinner at restaurants every day.
(D) Betty got a new house, so she has only a little money to spend every day.

4. What does They all not include (包括) ?

- (A) To take care of his father.
